Corporal Punishment in Schools Is Practically Abolished.

---EDUCATION BOARD NEW RULE

Corporal Punishment.

"Corporal punishment shall not be administered by any teacher, except in cases of flagrant offenses, and when other less severe modes of discipline have failed to reform a pupil. It shall never be inflicted until after consultation with and approval of the principal. in every class room."

In the matter of suspending a pupil the new rule of the board is very explicit, being as follows:

No teacher other than the principal shall have authority to suspend a pupil from school. The sending of any pupil away from the school building and thereby depriving him of school privileges, shall be considered suspension, and shall be so reported in writing the same day to the parent and super-

MODEL FARM IS BEGUN.

Irrigation Methods Are to Be Demon strated.

Work has begun in Ogden on the model irrigated farm which is to be exhibited for the benefit of those who attend the National Irrigation congress next month. The plans have been made by the special commission composed of State Senator David McKay, State Engineer A. F. Doremus, F. M. Driggs, superintendent of the state school for the deaf, dumb and blind, and O. H. Hickenloper.

The model farm will be laid out on the land betonging to the school for the deaf, dump and blind, about twenty acres being used. The method of taking water from the river, the canal and laterals will all be shown in a compact space. Modern fevices for measuring and apportioning water will be shown, as well as the different methods of irrigating, by furrow, flood or check. Losses in transporting water will be measured.

All these things will be practically flemonstrated with various kinds of growing crops, including grains, vegetables and fruits.

BABY'S ECZEMA

Top of Head Covered with Scales Which Peeled off Taking Hair with Them.

CURED BY CUTICURA

"My baby was about six weeks old when the top of her head became covered with thick scales, which would peel and come off, taking the hair with it. It would soon form again and be as bad as before. I tried several things and then went to the doctor. He said it was Eczema, and prescribed an ointment, which did not do any good. A friend spoke of Cutlcura Soap, I tried it and read on the wrapper about Cuticura Ointment as a remedy for Eczema. I bought a box and washed her head in warm water and Cuticura Soap and gently combed the scales off. They did ot come back and her hair grew out fine and thick. She is now a year and a half old and has no trace of Eczer You have my permission to publish my

ONLY IN RARE INSTANCES CAN

FORCE BE USED.

Corporal Punishment in the Public schools of this city is not to be tolerated by the board of education excepting in extreme cases. And then the influence of chastisement is to be conducted in a manner which will not add humiliation to the culprit. The whipping is not to be inflicted in any instance until all other efforts to control the refractory boy or girl have proven a failure. The pupil is not to be taken to task in the privacy of the principal.

The rule regarding the administration of corporal punishment is but one of a number of new ones adopted by the board for the guidance of feachers, pupils and principals during the 1803-04 corporal Punishment.

Matter Under Advisement.

Matter Under Advisement.

The question as to the validity of the criminal ordinances of the city in the revised ordinances of the city in the revised ordinances of the city in the revised ordinances of the city attorney by appeared for the sheriff, in whose charge are 'Reddy' Gallagher and Fred Bach, whose liberty is sought through the attack made upon the ordinances. They were represented by the law firm of Kinney & Christensen. At the conclusion of the arguments, Judge Lewis said he would probably render his decision this morning at 10 o'clock.

While City Attorney Nye practically admitted that the passage of the revised ordinances is not shown by certificate in the revision, he claimed that the reords do show that the criminal ordinances were vetoed by the mayor at the time of their passage, and then passed over his veto by the elty council. Judge Loofbourow, who was president of that city council, testified that the criminal ordinances were legally passed.

Judge Lewis said he would decide this morning, in all probability, whether it would be legal for him to consider the testimony of the former president of the council.

Sensational Allegations Denied. In her reply to the answer and cross complaint made by Fred J. Anstee to her suit for divorce on the grounds of non-support. Mrs. Hattie Chase Anstee denies that her father, Detective George Chase of the police department, ever coerced him into marrying her. She further denies that the father ever threatened to take Anstee's life if he did not marry her. In conclusion she makes the prayer that Anstee, who is a clerk in the Godbe-Pitts' drugstore, take pothing by his cross complaint and answer, and that she be granted a divorce as first petitioned.

Clerical Error Will Deprive Mountain

Dell of About Five Months. Through a clerical error on the part of the school board of Mountain Dell of the school board of Mountain Dell district, in certifying up to the board of county commissioners the amount of the tax which the trustees wished levied for 1903-1904 school purposes, the trustees will be deprived of about two-thirds of the amount necessary to keep the schools of that district open the full scholastic year. With the money in sight it will be impossible to keep the schools of that district open more than four months.

the schools of that district open more than four months.

A meeting of the voters of the district was held a few days ago, when it was voted to ask for a 1½-cent levy, which would net the district about $1,550. Through an error the trustees, in certifying up to the board of county commissioners made the recurst read commissioners, made the request read 136-mill levy, which will not net the district but about $155. The only other revenues at the disposal of the trustees will be about $240.

will be about $240.

The error of the trustees was called to the attention of the board of county commissioners yesterday afternoon by Jens Jensen, treasurer of the board of trustees. He was informed that, inasmuch as the levy has been made, that it cannot be changed. To make certain of their premises, County Attorney George Westervelt was asked for an opinion on the question. He gave a verbal one to the effect that the 1½-mill levy will have to stand. mill levy will have to stand.

When so informed, Treasurer Jensen said that the Mountain Dell schools cannot be kept open more than four months at the longest. About twenty five school children are affected by the

LAW UNDER SUSPICION

Act to Help Strawberry Creek Project May Be Unconstitutional.

Before anything further is done in the way of spending the money appropriated for the Strawberry reservoir project by the state land board, a legal decision will probably be secured. It is maintained by some lawyers that the law is unconstitutional. Either the state engineer or the state auditor will probably seek an opinion from the attorney general on the subject before any expense is incurred under the $1,500 appropriation.

Among the reasons cited for the possible unconstitutionality of the act i the allegation that it is special legis the allegation that it is special legis-lation. The appropriation is admitted-ly in the interest of an association of water users in the southern part of Utah county, of which the framer of the bill, Senator Henry Gardner, is a leader. It is admitted that no state land is to be benefited by the irrigation scheme this association is promoting. The law makes it mandatory on the land board to expend the money. This money is to be used to make surveys which the promoters of the irrigation project plan to use, thereby saving them just that much expense.

The state constitution forbids the legislature to pass any special laws "granting to an individual, association or corporation any privilege, immunity or franchise." According to one lawyer, it is doubtful whether the present law is a violation of the letter of this law is a violation of the letter of this clause, but he declares it a violation of the spirit.

V. HAUSER DIES IN A CHAIR

Stricken With Heart Failure He Passes Away Suddenly.

Vincent Hauser died very suddenly of heart failure about 7 o'clock yesterday morning while seated in a chair under a tree at his home, 359 Riverside avenue. He leaves a wife and several children. Funeral arrangements have not been completed. As deceased was a member of the Ancient Order of Enited Workmen, he will probably he United Workmen, he will probably be buried under the auspices of that fra-ternal organization.

Hauser was employed by the A. Fish-er Brewing company, and worked on one of the brew kettles. Yesterday morning he arose at the usual time apparently in the best of health, and went to work about 5:30 o'clock. Shortly before 7 o'clock Hauser complained of feeling poorly. He said he did not feeling poorly. He said he did not seem to be able to get his breath. Upon returning home, he sat in a chair under a tree in his yard to get the fresh air. He had not been there long before it became evident that he was seriously ill. Before a physician could be summoned, Hauser passed away as he sat in the chair. By the time Dr. Beer arrived the brewer was beyond all earthly aid.
